LOCATION

Elgin is situated approximately 66 miles northwest of Aberdeen and 39 miles southeast of Inverness. Within the Moray Council area, Elgin is the main administrative, business and service centre with Forres, Buckie, Lossiemouth and Keith being classified as secondary settlements. The town is accessed by the A96 trunk road which runs between Aberdeen and Inverness. There is also a railway line between those two cities. Elgin has a population of approximately 23,128 (2011 Census) and is the regional town for Moray, with a primary catchment of approximately 90,000 within a 10-mile radius.

As the administrative centre of Moray, Elgin houses the HQ offices of Moray Council. Elgin is also the regional retailing centre and an important centre for education, tourism, agricultural industries, the general service sector, healthcare, food & drink and the textile and distilling industries.

The town lies in the heart of the world famous Speyside Whisky country and together with ready access to the Cairngorm National Park and the Malt Whisky Trail this ensures Elgin is a popular tourist destination.

RAF Lossiemouth, one of the RAF's largest bases, is also located nearby and contributes significantly to the local economy. It is Scotland's only operational RAF base which has recently benefitted from £400m of investment. The MoD is a major employer and spends more than £2bn a year in Scotland. The RAF Kinloss barracks is also located approximately 11 miles from Elgin.

The subjects occupy a 100% prime pitch on the south side of Elgin High Street towards its eastern end within the pedestrianised area which is the town's principal shopping and footfall thoroughfare.

There is a good blend of both local and national businesses nearby which include Begg Shoes & Bags Ltd, Boots the Chemist, Specsavers Opticians, W H Smith, Bank of Scotland, PDSA, Nationwide Building Society and Starbucks, to name a few.
